Tax Refund For Elderly & Disabled
Program

Program Description

Everyday bills and other expenses can sure add up. Many older and disabled Wyoming residents could use a little extra financial help. Administered by the Wyoming Department of Health, the Tax Refund for Elderly & Disabled Program provides an allowance to help cover sales and use taxes, and utility and energy costs to qualified residents.

Public notice of this program is made through paid newspaper advertising, direct mail to previous applicants, outreach to senior centers and news releases around the state.

Applications can be picked up from local senior centers from June 01, thru the last working day in August.

To receive a refund, qualified residents must submit a new application each year.

Program Eligibility

Those eligible by statute for this program are individuals who are 65 years of age or older or 18 years of age or older and totally (100 percent) disabled. Income for these individuals must be less than $17,500 per year if single or $28,500 per year if married. Residency for 12 months prior to the date of application.

For a qualified single individual, the amount of refund varies between $150 and up to $800.

Income of $10,000 and below entitles the individuals to the full refund established by the program. The refund is prorated for incomes between $10,000 and $17,500.

For a married couple, the amount of refund varies between $150 and up to $900. Incomes of $16,000 and below entitles the individuals to the full refund established by the program. The refund is prorated for incomes between $16,000 and $28,500.

Important Program Notes

- There are three types of applicant; joint, single or joint with deceased spouse only if a spouse died during 2010 or 2011.
- Qualified applicants must be age 65 or over or totally disabled (100 percent) for at least for one full year prior to the application date.
- Total household assets must not exceed $27,270 per adult household member, per W.S. 39-11-109 (c)vii.
- Refunds shall be reduced by the dollar amount received from any veteran's exemption under W.S. 39-13-105, or any property tax refund under W.S. 39-11-109 (c)(iii).
- Due to medical privacy laws we will not ask for your Social Security number. Instead, we will ask for the form number imprinted on applications in the upper right hand corner that starts with "10," or your last and first name.
