BUILDING STANDARDS

SHERIDAN COUNTY, WYOMING

CHAPTER I - General Provisions

Section 1 - Title

These rules and regulations shall be known, cited, and referred to as "Building Standards, Sheridan County, Wyoming."

Section 2 - Authority

These rules and regulations are adopted pursuant to, and in accordance with, the authority vested in the Board of County Commissioners of Sheridan County by the statutes of the State of Wyoming, Section 18-3-504 and Section 18-5-201 through 18-5-207.

Section 3 - Applicability

These rules and regulations and subsequent regulations are to apply to all of the unincorporated portions of Sheridan County that are within:

1. City of Sheridan's Comprehensive Planning Area of 1983.
2. Those subdivisions that the BOCC imposed building codes permitting and inspections on, outside the original area, before 12-5-06.
3. All new subdivisions approved after 12-5-06, unless exempted by the BOCC.

The following properties and activities are specifically exempted from these Building Standards:

1. Farms or ranches of forty (40) acres or more on deeded land.
2. County memorial hospitals, hospital districts, private hospitals and other health care facilities.
3. Mines or their appurtenant facilities, oil field operations, petroleum refineries, and liquefied petroleum gas facilities.
4. Railway shops, railway buildings (except those used for public assembly, cafeterias, dormitories, etc.) rolling stock and locomotive equipment.
5. Automotive equipment employed by a railway, gas electric, or communication utility in the exercise of its function as a public utility.

Section 4 - Existing Structures

Buildings in existence at the time of the effective date of these Building Standards may have their existing use or occupancy continued, if such use or occupancy was legal at the time of effective date, provided such continued use is not dangerous to life. Additions, alterations or repairs may be made to any building or structure without requiring the existing building or structure to comply with all the requirements of the adopted codes, provided the addition; alteration or repair does not cause the existing building or structure to become unsafe.

Section 5 - Purpose

These Building Standards are enacted for the purpose of implementing the Sheridan County Comprehensive Plan by the establishment of regulations to provide a service to safeguard life and property from harm. These rules and regulations will establish minimum standards for buildings based on nationally recognized codes with modifications to accommodate local Sheridan County needs. The standards and enforcement established by these rules and regulations are intended to compliment the authority vested in the State of Wyoming, and the State's authority shall supersede the authority of Sheridan County relating to fire protection and electrical safety.

Wherever, in the Adopted Codes, reference is made to an appendix, the provisions of the appendix shall not apply unless specifically adopted within these rules and regulations.

Section 6 - Definitions

For the interpretation and administration of these rules and regulations, the following definitions shall apply:

1. "Building Official" shall be the Sheridan County Engineer and his/her office.

Section 7 - Severability

If any provisions of these rules or regulations or the application thereof to any person are held invalid, the invalidity shall not affect the other provisions or applications of these rules and regulations which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and, for this purpose, the provisions of these rules and regulations are severable.

CHAPTER II - Codes Adopted

Section 1 - Adoption of International Building Code

The International Building Code, 2006 Edition, published by the International Code Council is hereby adopted by Sheridan County in whole thereof, except insofar as certain sections and parts are specifically amended in the amendments Chapter of these rules and regulations.

Section 2 - Adoption of the International Residential Code

The International Residential Code, 2006 Edition, published by the International Code Council is hereby adopted by Sheridan County in whole thereof, except insofar as certain sections and parts are specifically amended in the amendments Chapter of these rules and regulations.

Section 3 - Adoption of the International Mechanical Code

The International Mechanical Code, 2006 Edition, published by the International Code Council, is hereby adopted by Sheridan County in whole thereof, except insofar as certain sections and parts which are specifically amended in the amendments Chapter of these rules and regulations.

Section 4 - Adoption of the International Fuel Gas Code

The International Fuel Gas Code, 2006 Edition, published by the International Code Council, is hereby adopted by Sheridan County in whole thereof, except insofar as certain sections and parts which are specifically amended in the amendments Chapter of these rules and regulations.

Section 5 - Adoption of the International Plumbing Code

The International Plumbing Code, 2006 Edition, published by the International Code Council, is hereby adopted by Sheridan County in whole thereof, except insofar as certain sections and parts which are specifically amended in the amendments Chapter of these rules and regulations.

Section 6 - Adoption of the National Electrical Code

The National Electrical Code, 2008 Edition, published by the National Fire Protection Association, is hereby adopted by Sheridan County in whole thereof, except insofar as certain sections and parts which are specifically amended in the amendments Chapter of these rules and regulations.

Section 7 - Adoption of the International Fire Code

The International Fire Code, 2006 Edition, published by the International Code Council, is hereby adopted by Sheridan County in whole thereof, except insofar as certain sections and parts which are specifically amended in the amendments Chapter of these rules and regulations.

Section 8 - Adoption of the Uniform Code for the Abatement of Dangerous Buildings

The Uniform Code for the Abatement of Dangerous Buildings, 1997 Edition, published by the International Conference of Building Officials, is hereby adopted by Sheridan County in whole thereof.

CHAPTER III - Administration and Enforcement

Section 1 - Permits Generally

Prior to construction with a value in excess of $5,000.00, a property owner or his agent shall obtain a building permit and any other applicable permit from the building official for any new construction, remodeling, repair, additions or demolition projects. All construction regardless of value must conform to applicable codes.

Section 2 - Emergency Work

None of these regulations or codes shall be construed to interfere with emergency installations or repairs. Emergency installations or repairs are those items of construction, which are necessary to be accomplished outside of normal business hours to avoid a serious hardship for the property owner. The Building Official must be notified of the work during the first available normal workday. At that time the Building Official will determine if the work actually constituted an emergency installation or repair. All disputes concerning emergency installations, repairs or work shall be settled by the Board of Appeals.

Section 3 - Administration and Appeals

The enforcement of these regulations shall be administered by the Sheridan County Building Official. The Building Official shall interpret codes, prescribe applications and permit forms, establish time frames and direct inspections. The Board of Appeals shall determine the suitability of alternate materials and type of construction and may grant variances and rule upon directives and orders issued by the Building Official. The Board of Appeals may amend, modify or rescind directives issued by the Building Official. The Board of Appeals may investigate the conduct of the Building Official's Office and shall have access to records of the Department. The Board of Appeals may require written or oral information from any officer or employee of the County. Decisions of the Building Official and the Board of Appeals can be appealed to the Board of Sheridan County Commissioners for confirmation, amendment, or reversal.

Section 4 - Legislative Intent

Decisions, determinations, and actions of the Sheridan County Building Official, the Board of Appeals, and the County Commission in the processing of this permit process, are governmental acts undertaken by a County, exercising discretion; and the County reserves all common law and statutory sovereign immunity defenses to claims of liability.

Section 5 - Enforcement

The provisions of these rules and regulations are enforceable for all appropriate legal remedies including, but not limited to, injunction relief or a writ of mandamus. Any person who willfully violates or fails or refuses to comply with any provision of these rules and regulations, including an officer or agent of a corporation or association, who participates in or is an accessory to violation, may be punished by a fine of not more than two hundred fifty dollars ($250.00) for each offense. Each day that a violation exists shall constitute a separate offense.

Section 6 - Amendments

All amendments, additions or updates to these rules and regulations must be approved by the Board of County Commissioners at a public meeting.

Section 7 - Effective Date

These rules and regulations are effective upon filing with the County Clerk as noted on the title page to this document.
