- You may also register at your polling place on the day of the Primary and General Election; however, to avoid being detained in the long lines at the polls, registering prior to the Election days is advised.
- A current valid photo identification or tribal identification card is required to register.
- The last day to register prior to the Primary Election is August 1, 2022.
- The last day to register prior to the General Election is October 24, 2022.

KEEPING REGISTRATION CURRENT:

- You need to register only once while living in Sheridan County, Wyoming, PROVIDED you vote in each General Election (November of every even-numbered year). If you miss voting in a General Election, you will be sent a notice of reinstatement before your name is removed from the registry list.
- If you move permanently to a different county or state, you must re-register in that county or state. If you move temporarily from Sheridan County (military, college, etc.) and your intent is to return here, you may remain registered in Sheridan County and vote by absentee method.
- If you change your address within the county, notify the Election Office in person, by mail or by phone

DECLARING A PARTY:

- You must declare a political party affiliation in order to vote for a political party candidate in the PRIMARY Election.
- This declaration can be made at the time you register or at the polls on Primary Election Day.
- If you do not want to declare a party preference in the Primary Election, you may only vote on Non-Partisan candidates and issues.
- A party affiliation need not be declared at the General Election.

ABSENTEE VOTING:

- If you are not able to be present at the polls on Election Day, you may vote by absentee ballot.
- You may request an absentee ballot anytime during the calendar year of the upcoming elections.
- Absentee balloting for the Primary Election will begin July 1, 2022 and continue through August 15, 2022.

- Constitutional Amendment A

Following is the ballot language of Constitutional Amendment A as it will appear on the 2022 General Election ballot: The Wyoming Constitution allows the state to invest state funds in equities such as the stock of corporations, but does not allow the funds of counties, cities and other political subdivisions to be invested in equities. The adoption of this amendment would allow the funds of counties, cities and other political subdivisions to be invested in equities to the extent and in the manner the legislature may allow by law. Any law authorizing the investment of specified political subdivision funds in equities would require a two-thirds vote of both houses of the legislature.
